Dear   Het Patel

Greetings!!

This is to confirm you that you have been offered the IBM SkillsBuild Internship
(A CSR Initiative of IBM)
on Data Analytics.

In order to successfully complete the internship, your internship experience must meet the standard requirements. I affirm that this internship is a total of 12 weeks. The work will be done virtually and includes meaningful learnings & tasks that focus on developing the knowledge, skills, and abilities that are applicable to future employment opportunities. Mentors, experts and supporting staff will conduct masterclasses, sessions and meetings to discuss your learnings and the progress on your deliverable.

The IBM SkillsBuild internship will start on 13th February 2023 and end on 30th April 2023 with the submission of the project deliverable.

Sincerely,

Team CSRBOX
